

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Chief Warrant Officer Four Johnny L. Dosch's dedication to service has made him a valuable asset to this state and country; and,

Whereas, We have very few occasions to recognize the patriotic individuals for their service to this state and country; and,

Whereas, Chief Warrant Officer Four Dosch devoted more than 33 years of his life to the service of this state and country as a logician and leader in the Regular Army and the South Dakota Army National Guard, including service in Iraq during Operation Iraqi Freedom II; and,

Whereas, His loyalty and leadership have made him a cornerstone in the Armed Forces of this country; and,

Whereas, Chief Warrant Officer Four Dosch continues to give of himself; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to commend Chief Warrant Officer Four Johnny L. Dosch for more than 33 years of dedicated and outstanding service to this state and country:

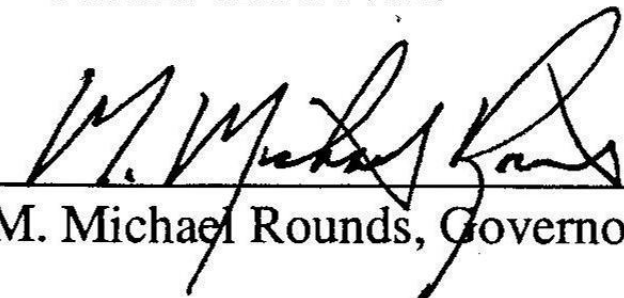

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 14, 2007, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends in wishing him well in his retirement and thanking him for his service to the state of South Dakota and to the United States.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-sixth Day of April in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seven.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
